PASADENA'S DAY TO SHINE

TURNS THE TABLES ON ALMA DUFOUR AND OLD HONESTY.

Jac hite Easily Defeats Colloquy and First Premium-Various Matters Under Investigation.

New Orleans, La., December 31 .- Under con ditions practically the same as prevailed in their last meeting when Old Honesty won and Alma Dufour finished second, except that Old Honesty carried more weight, Pasadena turned the tables on his recent conquerors by decisively beating the pair in one and one-fifth seconds faster time. previous meeting Old Honesty was supported to the exclusion of the others, Pasadena especially soaring in the betting. Mountain had the mount on Pasa dena on that occasion and came in for criticism on account of the poor ride he gave him. V. Powers had the mount today, and the horse was in active contention from the start, despite the bumping he had to overcome from Plantiand in the first three-quarters, and came away in the to win after a mild shaking up. Old Honesty finished in third place.

The judges at once began an investigation which lasted until after the closing race. Owner Vincen attributed the defeat of Pasadena in his last start instructions he gave Mountain and inform the judges that he was satisfied with the ride the horse received. Mountain also laid the blame to the instructions given him by Vincent, and said that he did his best to win. The matter is still that he did his best to win. under investigation, no action being taken tonight.

The last day's racing of the year furnished numer ous incidents and terminated with a disqualification that took first money from Husted for interfering with Anna Day, the favorite. Husted was the leader in the stretch, but bumped slightly into Anna Day and outstayed her to the finish, winning by a neck. On complaint of Notter, who rode Anna Day, Husted was set back and the Corrigan filly awarded the purse, Adesso getting second money and Louise Macfarlan third.

Jacobite, conceding weight to the others, took the sprint race after a brilliant effort to wear down Colloquy. He bumped her sharply in the stretch run, for which Notter escaped censure. First Premi-um, making his initial start here this season, ran good race and took third place.

The steeplechase was won by Rip, which was well contention over the services of jockey Lloyd was settled yesterday by the officials at City Park. came here with the intention of riding for J. P. Mayberry, but on receipt of a telegram from Amos Turney, the judges ordered him not to accept any mounts. Turney claims he has a contract on Lloyd. It developed, however, that a contract on boy had been given to J. H. Baker last spring ey. Baker has Brandt under contract also. perfectly willing that Lloyd should accept outsid This means that Lloyd can ride mounts. berry and he will be seen in the saddle here lext few days.

RYAN'S OFFER FOR JACK ATKIN.

In a letter from Los Angeles Barney. Schreiber writes with reference to Jack Atkin and, the deal with John Ryan for the horse: "Ryan offered $10,000 for the horse in cash and $4,000 when the horse had won. I told Ryan that I intended to keep Jack Atkin for a sire at Woodlands, but that I would lease his racing qualities. We could not agree on a price for the lease, so the horse is still

AMERICAN RUNNING RECORDS TO DATE.

Many extremely fast horses were in action in 1907, yet only seven new records were established. At Oakland, December 3, Jack Nunnally wiped out the long-established record of George F. Smith and substitnied 582 seconds for the latter's 59. At Belmont Park, October 10, Colin ran seven furlongs straight in 1:23 and displaced Bella B.'s record of 1:234. At Gakland, November 30, Rapid Water covered a mile and one hundred yards in 1:445 and erased Grand Opera's previous record of 1:445 for the distance. Charle Edward established a new mark at a mile and an eighth when he ran that distance in 1:50% at Brighton Beach, July 16. Ties were made by Colloquy and Charlie Eastman at five and a half furlongs, Colonel Ech at three-quarters, Cadichon at seven and a half furlongs, Mainchance at a mile and forty yards At Belmont Park, October 14, Brookdale Nymph made a new record at six and a half furlongs when she ran the distance in 1:172. Two notable new records over long distances were Mamie Algol's three mile at New Orleans in 5:19 and Los Angeleno's four miles in a race in 7:163 at Oakland. The table of Ameri-

HURDLE RACES-(HEATS).

Sir Edward again disappointed his backers today in the running of the fourth race, in which he was installed an odds-on favorite to the exclusion of everything else excepting Preen. The latter was a contender, running lapped on Sir Edward until in the last sixteenth, when he tired and finished a and reported all distances absolutely correct.

J. B. Dunn claimed East End from W. A. Mc-

Kinney out of the third race.

UNLUCKY WITH HIS SEND-OFFS AND LEAVES BEECHWOOD AT POST.

Burleigh Wins in Gallant Fashion in a Close Finish-Winning Long Shots Are Numerous.

Oakland, Cal., December 31.—The pretensions of the favorites were swent aside, and outsiders and second choices held sway in every one of the six races at Oakland today. The starter contrib-uted materially to this unsatisfactory state of affairs. Dwyer's work was of the crudest description, and in the fifth race he capped the climax to a long series of blunders at the barrier by sending the field away without Beechwood and Magrane, the first and second choices. The firstnamed was left absolutely and only cantered the journey, but Magrane's namesake was sent after the leaders in a suicidal attempt to overtake them, eventually landing a close fourth.

The public sustained its severest financial reverse in the chief race, the Greenbrae Handicap, in which Arklirta, the best supported favorite of the afternoon, suffered an uncommonly bad defeat with Miller up. Frank Farrell's cast-off was backed to the exclusion of almost every other horse in the race. Burleigh, with odds receding steadily in the betting, earned a brilliant and decisive victory, whereas Arklirt: was seemingly drable to raise a respectable gallop.

ane forward running of the incomprehensible Cloudlight evoked derisive hooting. Everybody hoped for her defeat during the last sixteenth's grueiling struggle between the pair and a great cheer went up when Burleigh got bis head in front in the very last stride

Walter Miller's winning ride on All Ablaze in the third race was the real outstanding feature of the day's sport.

An aftermath of scandal has developed from the defeat of Boas in the last race on Monday. Jack Keene's gelding was an even-money favorite and finished unplaced. Several layers with short bankrolls overlaid themselves on Boas throughout the betting. Keene dismissed jockey McIntyre for his service forthwith, leaving the inference the his horse was dishonestly ridden.

The forward running of Sister Frances was one of the unpleasant features that cropped up during the afternoon. Rogers the owner, has been riding Lentz on the mare in five-furlong sprints. Today the alert stewards would not allow him to substitute a good jockey for his pliable stable boy. with the result that the latter bungled the job and Sister Frances was just beaten in a race she should Sister Frances was claimed from the have won. race for $1,425 by H. G. Bedwell.

Jockey J. Butler was suspended by the starter three days for being slow at the post.

SIR EDWARD SWERVES INTO DEFEAT.

Beaten by F. E. Shaw-King, Wilda Wins Again-East End Fails to Stay.

Los Angeles, Cal., December 31.—The track dried out so quickly today under a genial sun after last night's rain, that it was fairly fast. Although the card was of mediocre quality, it was productive of some exciting sport, several of the finishes being of the sensational order.

Sir Edward, on his showing against Colonel Jack vesterday, was regarded as the winner of the fourth race to almost a certainty by the wise speculators, but the Walsh candidate again failed to make good, He would have won but for swerving into defeat in the closing strides and allowing F. E. Shaw, a rank outsider, to win by a head. General Haley, which finished third, pulled up very lame and may not be seen at the post again for some time.

Wise Child won the first race from the favorite, Velma C., which on her previous race was considered much of the best of the ten maidens start-Velma C., off to a flying start, proceeded to set a fast pace for five and one-half furlongs, but tired when challenged by the fast-closing winner, which passed her to win in a canter.

Jockey Shilling did better in the next race by bringing his mount into the lead and staying there throughout. E. Dugan showed some of his skill when he finally worked Teacress out of a pocket and, finishing fast, secured second place Talarand. The Arrowed and Luckett would not break and were left at the post.

The Texas horse, King Wilda, ridden by the Texas jockey, Milliano, won his second start here as easily as he did the first last Saturday. Harry Scott met with considerable interference during the early running, but got clear in the stretch and finished fast.

STAKE ENTRIES DRIFTING IN.

New York, December 31.-Advance stake entries to the events closing at midnight of Thursday are so far satisfactory to the secretaries. To there are fifty-eight different nominators to the several Coney Island Jockey Club Stakes. Keene, Belmont and Madden no entries have been received to date, but the officials say this is not surprising, as they always wait until the last mine. This is characteristic of horsemen and ac-unts for the apparently light number received o to the present. The number so far received for Coney Island

KING'S PLATE FOR THE NORTHWEST.

Lord Minto Advocates Royal Donation for Manitoba and Alberta.

A movement is on foot to establish races such as the King's Plate of the Ontario Jockey Club, yearly the feature of the Toronto meeting, at several points in western Canada. There is hardly any town of size in the northwest territories that has not a race track and the people of the region are keenly interested in both the contest and breeding side of the turf. Lord Minto, former Governor-General of Canada, took the idea up at a recent dinner in London. In the course of a speech Lord Minto alluded to the great race meetings of the Ontario Jockey Club and made special mention of the good that had been achieved by having such a race as His Majesty's Guineas on the club's program. He thought it might perhaps be highly advantageous if similar plates were donated to Manitoba and the northwest territories as an encouragement to the more general use of the thor oughbred sire in that region.

Following the idea out a correspondent of the Canadian Sportsman, writing from Edmonton, one of the new and great northwest territories' towns

"There is no doubt that one or more King's Plate in this western country would be of immense benefit to the breeding of thoroughbreds. We have the greatest country on earth for raising them, only want more encouragement. Water, soil and climate are all that could be desired, while our hilly country gives the best of feet, and develops muscle. Our high altitude is also most beneficial to the lungs and our bunch grass excels the far famed Kentucky blue grass. All this has been proved and with the limited oportunities we have had, we have sent some good ones to the races notably, May W., a winner of forty-five races, All Smoke, a great winner up to seven or eight years old, and the dam of winners, Plumeria, a winner up to six years of age, a grand broodmare and winners, including the stake horse, Sir dam of six Wilfrid. Dora I. was also a good winner. These norses were all bred in Alberta and are a few of the good ones that I can remember, but there were many others from Alberta, our sister provinces and British Columb! that have made g at the races.

"As regards the King's Plate (when we get it) in my humble opinion the restrictions which make this race at the Woodbine, although a great social event, a farce as far as bringing out the best Ontario-bred horses, for very few of the small breed ers or owners can afford to keep a good two-year-old a maiden even for the honor of winning the King's Guineas, and therefore only the culls are eligible. The winners of this race since it was first started, with a few notable exceptions, could hardly win a cheap selling race and their time has been equalle if not beaten by our western horses on half-mile tracks. I honestly believe that some of our halfbred cow horses could run a mile and a quarter in 2:14 or better on a good mile track like the Wood bine. I had one of these half-bred horses some years ago that ran a mile over the half-mile track at Medicine Hat in 1:50 with 122 pounds up—this was without training, as he was only taken off the bunch grass a few days before the race.

"The western King's Plate should be in the form of a Landicap for western-bred horses which have not raced outside of Canada, with penalties and allowances, so as to bring all our best home-bred horses together."

NEWCASTLE STABLE'S YEARLINGS.

New York, December 31.—In the Newcastle Stable are eleven yearlings in charge of trainer Tom Welsh, six colts and five fillies. This is a promising band and was picked with a great deal A bay colt by Garry Hermann-Run of Luck half-brother to Ace High, but a much better looking youngster. The stable boasts of a half-brother to McChes ney in the bay colt by Sempronius-Manola Mason. This is an evenly balanced colt, not quite as large as the first named, will make a fair-sized horse and has the appearance of a racer.

Another bay is by Sempronius-Cereta and from his make-up he should be a very quick and active colt. His conformation is very good all over.

A lengthy chestnut colt on short legs is the half-brother to Huntressa, by Nasturtium—Sayonora. This colt's shoulders and speedy looking quarters are very taking and he ought to race well on both his breeding and looks. A useful looking colt is the bay by Golden Maxim -Miss Laudeman. He is a light made, leggy, rangy sort and should be useful, though not strongly

The brown filly by Blackstock-Pond Lily, is the pretty one of the bunch. She is well put together on short legs and her make-up all over is of the best. She certainly has speed.

The Sandringham-Homespun filly has splendid head and neck, good depth through the girth and quarters that mark her as a high-class

The bay filly by Ben Strome-Spindrift, is put on the old-fashioned line of the Bonnie Scotland family. She should run fast and campaign all se

Taking the stable all through, two-year-olds and old horses, it may be a hard stable to beat. All the colts and fillies were carefully selected as they are every year by Mr. Welsh.

MILLSTREAM STUD TO GO ON.

Lexington, Ky., December 31.-Since the recent visit of Andrew Miller, Franklin C. Bishop and Thomas Welsh, it is generally understood here that the Millstream Stud is to be kept intact for Manager Charles Mcseason, at least. Cracken is proceeding as if all idea of a dispersal has been abandoned. However, it can be authorititavely stated that any one or several of the thirty-three mares and either of the stallions, Adam and Handspring, can be purchased at the prices set by the owners when they decided to consign the stud to the November Fasig-Tipton sale. It is rumored here that the French-bred son of Flying Fox—Amie is held at $60,000 for a low figure. He cost $80,000 when Mr. Bishop bought him in France in 1906, but the firm had the benefit of one He served last spring thirty-six maresseason. twenty of them belonging to his owners and sixteen

PRINCE NAP DISAPPOINTING.

Jack Keene would not back his own horse, Prince Nap, the four-year-old brown gelding by Eddie Jones-Altamax, which won the sixth race at Oakland last Thursday, because he said Prince Nap the greatest disappointment in horse flesh he ever owned, having won only one race during two years in training. Keene paid $2,200 for him at the Burns & Waterhouse sale as a yearling, and says the horse was the highest-priced yearling he ever bought.

PICKERING MARRIES IN AFRICA.

Jockey W. W. Pickering and his bride, who was the books of Miss Piccione, arrived in this country from England on the Cedric of the White Star Line la Sunday. Pickering went to South Africa last year to ride for James Piccione, a South African ranch-man, who races a large stable at Johannesburg During the absence of his employer Pickering elope with his daughter, and the couple were 26 at Durban, immediately sailing for England after cabling the father of the elopement and marriage. Pickering says he might resume riding in this country next year.

John Madden's special mission in England is said to be to buy an English sire of renown. Madden has Ogden, Plaudit and Yankee at Hamburg Place now, and it may be that he intends to set up a rival to the great Rock Sand.

Trainer Dick Williams of the Pasadena Stable has been notified by the Jockey Club that the horses in the stable which had been barred from racing at Santa Anita Park because they were outlawed in that they were raced at Jamestown, Va., have been cleared and restored to good standing.

William K. Vanderbilt, president of the Island Jockey Club, has issued a call for the annual meeting to be held at the office of the club, 571 Fifth Avenue, New York City, January 13, 1908, the polls to be open for one hour between 3 and 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Winner—Br. g, by Bitter Root—Sis (trained by B. Vincent).

Went to post at 1:59. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving: second and third the same.

J. J. Jr., away slowly and in a tangle, had to close a big gap and, although going wide, finished gamely and got up in the closing stride. Prince Hohenlohe followed Constantia close up for the first half and moved into the lead in the stretch, but tired in the closing strides. Royal Bond was prominent all the way and ran a good race. Constantia showed superior speed for a half and quit badly at the end. First Opal ran well. Idalo closed a big gap in the stretch. Durable was caught in a jam soon after the stret. Tom McAfee had a rough trip. Jim Hill lacked speed and ran poorly. May Rowe was away poorly and never a serious contender.

Went to post at 3:35. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.

Pasadena suffered from interference and was sharply crowded and shuffled back on the first turn, had to stand considerable bumping for the next half from Plantland, but moved up and secured clear salling on the stretch turn, wore down Old Honesty after a slight shaking up and outstayed Alma Dufour in the closing drive. Alma Dufour, away slowly, trailed the others for the first three-quarters, then moved up fast through the stretch and was gaining on the winner near the end. Old Honesty showed the most speed for three-quarters, but tired in a game stretch drive. Plantland was prominent for three-quarters and quit.

Winner—B, g, by Golden Garter—Flora Mac (trained by G. P. Brazier).

Went to post at 4:05. At post 3 minutes. Start good for all but Prince Ahmed. Won easily; second and third driving. Jacobite was in close pursuit of Colloquy for the first half, moved up fast on the stretch turn and, after a slight shaking up, drew clear. Colloquy showed the most early speed and held on gamely after tiring. First Premium began slowly and was a distant trailer for a half, then came with a tremendous rush and finished resolutely. Lens, away in a tangle, had to be hard ridden for the first three furlongs and ran a good race, but tired in the stretch. Prince Ahmed acted baddy at the post and wheeled at the start, then displayed high speed in racing into a contending position in the first three furlongs, but quit in the last-quarter. Comedienne ran poorly and can do much better.

MEXICAN RACING PROSPECTS GOOD.

William Dubois, the eastern clubhouse commis-Mexican Jockey Club, an organization over 250 years old.

"The men composing this club." says Dubois, "are a fine lot, and are gentlemen sportsmen, pure and simple. They are of old Castilian families, and are all dons and hidalgoes. Mr. Gonzales, the presi dent, told me they didn't care if they lost $250,000, just so they could have clean, interesting racing. A lot of American race horses have been taken down there, and are going to be bred, but it is my opinion that they will need a great deal of acclimating before they can race in Mexico, on account of the difference in altitude.

"I shall have an entry in their first Mexican Futurity, which will be run next winter, and for which they have hung up $25,000 Mexican, which amounts to $12,500 in gold. They are offering big purses, and I really think they will be successful. They are actuated by a desire for clean sport and their Jockey Club is an exclusive organization, composed of the best men in Mexico, and it seems certain that they will keep the sport on a high

Of course, there has been racing for many years in Mexico, but it has been principally pony races and gentlemen's races. They have had trotting, too, but now they are going in for the real thing and are fitting up their plant handsomely. Their sioner, and owner of Charles Edward and Nealon, track is old, but it is a good one, and they will was recently in Mexico and was entertained by the While at Chihuahua Dubois ran into Jack Follans bee's country, and says of it:

"Mr. Follansbee is regarded as a kind of feudal lord down there, and I really believe that he and ex-Governor Terazas rule Chihuahua."

Occasional, FUNNY SIDE.

8-1, Won.

This horse was sent to us from the track unexpectedly as being exceptionally good, and we immediately sent this one to all subscribers to replace our withdrawn occasional of Monday.
